§ 8.

1. The General Meeting may be ordinary or extraordinary.
2. The Ordinary General Meeting should be held within six months after the end of each financial year of the Company.
3. The Extraordinary General Meeting is convened in the cases provided for by law or the provisions of these Articles of Association and when the bodies or persons authorized to convene General Meetings deem it advisable.

1. Participation in the General Meeting may also be taken by means of electronic communication. The body convening the Meeting decides about participation in the General Meeting in the manner referred to in the first sentence.
2. Participation in the General Meeting referred to in sec. 1 above includes:

- 1) two-way real-time communication of all persons participating in the General Meeting, under which they make statements during the General Meeting, staying in a place other than the place of the General Meeting, and
 - 2) voting before or during the General Meeting of Shareholders in person or by a proxy.
3. The Company provides real-time broadcast of the General Meeting.
 4. The Supervisory Board shall define the detailed rules of participation in the General Meeting by means of electronic communication in the form of the Regulations of the General Meeting.

§ 10.

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders may adopt resolutions only as regards matters included in the agenda.
2. The agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be determined in the mode and on terms specified in the Code of Commercial Companies.

1. The General Meeting is valid if it is attended by shareholders representing more than 50% of the total number of votes in the Company.
2. Shareholders may participate in the General Meeting in person or through proxies.
3. Members of the Supervisory Board and the Management Board may participate in the deliberations of the General Meeting.

The General Meeting of Shareholders takes place in the registered office of the Company or in Warsaw.

The General Meeting is opened by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or one of his Deputies. Should these persons be absent, the General Meeting is opened by the President of the Management Board or a person appointed by the Management Board. Then, the Meeting elects the Chairman of the Meeting from among the persons entitled to participate in the General Meeting.

§ 14.

1. The General Meeting adopts resolutions on matters reserved to its competence by the provisions of the Code of Commercial Companies and the provisions of these Articles of Association.
2. The General Meeting adopts resolutions by an absolute majority of votes cast, unless the provisions of the Commercial Companies Code or the provisions of this Statute provide for a more severe majority.
3. The resolutions of the General Meeting require in particular:

- 1) review and approval of the report of the Management Board and Supervisory Board on the Company's operations, as well as the Company's financial statements for the last financial year and the consolidated financial statements for the last financial year,
 - 2) deciding on the distribution of profit or the method of covering the loss,

 - 12) creation and liquidation of the Company's capitals and funds,
 - 13) all matters relating to claims for compensation for damage caused in the course of establishing the Company or exercising management or supervision,
 - 14) use of reserve capital,
 - 15) expressing consent to each purchase and sale of real estate, the right of perpetual usufruct or a share in real estate or perpetual usufruct, as well as the establishment of a limited property law on real estate, perpetual usufruct or a share in real estate, with a value above the amount referred to in § 1 section 4 point 4.15 of the Articles of Association.
4. In matters brought by the Management Board to the General Meeting in accordance with sec. 1, the Management Board presents to the General Meeting the draft resolutions together with the written opinion of the Supervisory Board.

The subject of the Company's activity may be changed without the obligation to buy out shares, in compliance with the provisions of Art. 417 § 4 of the Commercial Companies Code.

B. SUPERVISORY BOARD

1. The Supervisory Board is composed of at least 5 members appointed for a joint term of office.
2. The term of office of the Supervisory Board is five years.
3. Members of the Supervisory Board are appointed and dismissed by the General Meeting.
4. The General Meeting, prior to the election of members of the Supervisory Board for a new term of office, determines the number of members of the Supervisory Board.
5. In the event of a decrease in the number of members of the Supervisory Board following the expiry of the mandate of a member of the Supervisory Board, the Management Board of the Company is obliged to immediately convene a General Meeting and place an item on the agenda of that Meeting regarding changes in the composition of the Supervisory Board or changes in the number of Supervisory Board members for a given term of office.

1. The Supervisory Board elects from among its members, in a secret ballot, the Chairman, Secretary of the Supervisory Board, Deputy Chairman or, if it deems it justified, two Deputy Chairmen. The powers of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board are determined by the provisions of these Articles of Association and the Rules of the Supervisory Board of the Company.
2. The Supervisory Board may dismiss, in a secret ballot, from the performed functions of the Chairman, Deputy Chairman or Secretary of the Supervisory Board.
3. Meetings of the Supervisory Board are convened and chaired by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, and in his absence, one of his Deputies appointed by the Chairman, or another member of the Supervisory Board indicated in writing by the Chairman.
4. Meetings of the Supervisory Board are convened ex officio, at the request of the Management Board or at least two Members of the Supervisory Board, and the first meeting of the Supervisory Board of a new term of office is convened by the Management Board within 14 days from the date of appointment of the Supervisory Board.
5. Apart from Supervisory Board members, meetings of the Supervisory Board may be attended by members of the Management Board, a proxy and invited guests. The chairman of the Supervisory Board meeting may order persons other than Supervisory Board members to leave the meeting room.

The Supervisory Board holds meetings at least once per quarter.

§ 19.

1. Resolutions of the Supervisory Board are adopted by a majority of two thirds of the votes cast.

2. For the resolutions of the Supervisory Board to be valid, all members of the Supervisory Board must be invited to the meeting and more than half of the members of the Supervisory Board must be present at the meeting.
3. The Members of the Supervisory Board may participate in the adoption of Board resolutions by casting their vote in writing through another Member of the Supervisory Board. A vote cast in writing may not concern the matters listed on the agenda of a Supervisory Board meeting.
4. The Supervisory Board may adopt resolutions without holding a meeting in writing or using means of direct remote communication. Resolutions adopted in writing or using means of direct remote communication, as well as by electronic means, provided for in this § 19 section 5 of the Articles of Association are adopted if the draft resolution has been effectively delivered to all Supervisory Board Members, all Supervisory Board Members participated in the vote, and at least two-thirds of the Supervisory Board Members voted for the resolution.
5. Resolutions may also be adopted electronically. Electronic voting is ordered by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board. In the absence of the Chairman, electronic voting is ordered by one of his Deputies.
6. Support for the meetings of the Supervisory Board, including taking minutes and voting in writing, electronically or using means of direct remote communication is performed by a person from outside the Supervisory Board appointed by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board.
7. The detailed operating procedure of the Supervisory Board and committees appointed from among the Members of the Supervisory Board, including the audit committee, is set out in the Supervisory Board Rules adopted by it.

1. The Supervisory Board ensures surveillance over all the fields of the Company activities.
2. In order to exercise supervision in the scope and under the conditions provided for in the Articles of Association, the Supervisory Board has the right to examine all the Company's documents, request reports and explanations from the Management Board, and review the Company's assets.
3. The Supervisory Board performs its duties collectively, but it may delegate its members to perform specific supervisory activities independently. The Supervisory Board appoints committees in cases provided for by law. Moreover, the Supervisory Board may appoint other committees, defining the scope and rules of their operation.
4. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board is entitled to independently perform supervisory activities over the activities of the Management Board in terms of contracts, revenues, costs and expenses.
5. The competences of the Supervisory Board include matters reserved by the provisions of the Code of Commercial Companies and the provisions of these Articles of Association, in particular:
 - 1) audit of the annual financial statements of the Company and the consolidated financial statements both in terms of compliance with the books and documents as well as the actual state of affairs, audit of the annual report of the Management Board on the activities of the Company together with the assessment of the work of the Management Board, as well as examination of the Management Board's conclusions regarding the distribution of profit or coverage of losses, and submitting to the Ordinary General Meeting a written report on the results of the above-mentioned tests,

- 2) preparation and presentation to the Annual General Meeting of a report on the activities of the Supervisory Board, assessment of the Company's situation, assessment of the manner in which the Company fulfils its disclosure obligations, assessment of the rationality of the policy pursued by the Company, including, inter alia, the pricing policy, as well as the assessment of the internal control system and the risk management system significant for the Company, in each of the above-mentioned cases, taking into account the corporate governance principles adopted by the Company,
- 3) approving and changing the Rules of the Management Board and the Organizational Regulations of the Company,
- 4) approving the Work Regulations and the Employee Remuneration Regulations,
- 5) establishing the rules and amounts of remuneration for members of the Management Board,
- 6) suspending the President of the Management Board, Vice President of the Management Board and other Members of the Management Board or the entire Management Board in secret voting for important reasons,
- 7) delegating a member or members of the Supervisory Board for a period of no more than three months to temporarily perform the duties of a recalled Company Management Board Member who resigned or was unable to perform his duties for other reasons,
- 8) determining the amount of remuneration of a Supervisory Board Member or Members delegated to temporarily perform the duties of a Management Board Member,
- 9) selection of a statutory auditor to audit the Company's financial statements,
- 10) approving the long-term action programs of the Company and the Group, including the operating strategies of the Company and the Group, developed by the Management Board,
- 11) approving the Company's quarterly and annual operating programs as well as the Group's quarterly and annual operating programs, in particular including production and revenue plans, cost-by-type plans, unit cost plans, remuneration plans, investment plans as well as repair and service plans,
- 12) approving the terms, plans and prices of purchases and sales of goods and services by the Company to the extent specified by a resolution of the Supervisory Board,

The above-mentioned notification is made at least 72 hours before the date of the meeting. Exceptionally, it may take place in a shorter period with the written consent of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board.
9. The Company's proxy has the right to participate in the meetings of the Management Board. Together with the notification of the date of the meeting, the Management Board delivers the agenda to the commercial proxy.

10. Persons representing the Company at the shareholders' meeting / general meeting of the Company's direct subsidiaries are appointed by a resolution of the Management Board. These persons are obliged to exercise the right to vote on matters included in the agenda in accordance with the instructions provided by a resolution of the Management Board of the Company after prior written consent of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of the Company.
11. The Management Board of the Company is obliged to ensure that the statutes and agreements of subsidiaries of ZE PAK SA comply with the Company's Articles of Association to the greatest extent possible.
12. The Management Board is obliged to keep a register of the Company's proxies. Entry in the register takes place upon granting the power of attorney. The President of the Management Board is responsible for the proper keeping of the register of the Company's representatives. Supervision over the implementation of the register of attorneys in subsidiaries of ZE PAK SA is held by the Law Firm.
13. The President of the Management Board is obliged to deliver to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, upon his request, a written report on the implementation of the Management Board's resolutions.

To submit declarations of will and sign on behalf of the Company, joint cooperation is required: the President of the Management Board, Vice-President of the Management Board and a Member of the Management Board of the Company or the President of the Management Board, Vice-President of the Management Board and a Proxy.

§ 25.

1. The Management Board of the Company is obliged to maintain the continuity of proxies in the Company, in particular, in the event of termination of the proxies for any reason, the Management Board is obliged to immediately appoint another Proxy.
2. The approval of all members of the Management Board is required to grant a proxy, however, only the establishment of a proxy is allowed, obliging the proxy to perform activities jointly with the President of the Management Board and the Vice President of the Management Board of the Company.
3. A proxy may be granted by the Management Board of the Company only to candidates approved by the Supervisory Board of the Company.
4. Each member of the Management Board may revoke the proxy.

§ 26.

The Supervisory Board is authorized to conclude, amend and terminate contracts with Members of the Management Board on behalf of the Company.
